Grand Knight's Report:

1. Received a check from St. Vincent DePaul to cover expenses of the ramp project for the couple in need.
2. All scholarships to the high school student awardees have been distributed. Congratulations to Lauren Wettman of Gloucester Catholic, Amy Chen of Kingsway, and Hannah Kastner of Clearview.
3. Tom Kopek is the new GK of the Woodstown Council, and he is a cancer survivor.
4. Still looking for a brother knight to step up and be considered for the Chancellor position.
5. Final total for the Intellectual Disabilities Drive, AKA Tootsie Roll Drive, was $3,782.36. Thank you, John for your leadership.
6. Received a thank you letter from Cesar Seraho, our sponsored seminarian.
7. GK Bob LaMastro delivered his final message as Grand Knight, thanking the brother knights for the help over the past two years. The pandemic made our efforts tough, but we managed accomplish great things during this time including food drives, coats for kids, helping the church with handling pandemic issues, helped support the AV and online broadcast of masses, held the Annual Golf Outing, Coin Drops, return of the Phillies Night, Anniversary Dinner, and Pride in our Priests. The definition of Committee is five doing the work of one – our council managed to team together on so many projects to work as one, and that is the true mission of our council. Thank you so much.
